Hi Tim,

Here is a little more information. I currently have the car J59S102805. It is red with white today, but started as frost blue. The bottom of the frame took a pretty good hit at one time, as if it did a Dukes of Hazard jump. Maybe over a railroad crossing? It could have been the same time the left front was damaged.

My parents bought the car in Fairmount, but the dealer had no record of the previous owner(s). I thought maybe since it was frost blue (somewhat rare and unique) and changed to red (understandably, but not my choice), that someone may recall the car. I know it is a long shot, but the Corvette community surprises us sometimes.

The carpet in the trunk makes me think someone may have showed it at one time, and I think it was frost blue at that point. My reasoning is because the carpet was removed, but the glue remnants was painted over with red.

One more thing...it had a NCRS sticker in the windshield.

Thanks again for your time.

Best regards,
Barry Herman

Message from The Chairman

The 2020 NCRS National Convention will be held in French Lick, Indiana. I attended the board meeting, in Indianapolis, on March 27th and met with Mike Ingham and Dave Ewan. We discussed Indiana Chapters role and participation at the convention. Our participation is said to be minimal with the exception of securing volunteers— “as many as we can get” was requested. If you are interested in helping, please contact me and I’ll give you the information. To date, Rick Coker and I will help with the PV route, judging schools, and tech sessions.

There are many up-coming events occurring in next couple of months.

Message from The Judging Chairman

It appears that Spring is here, and everyone must be getting anxious to get their Corvettes out. After a long and cold Winter, our first judging meet is June 7-8 in Lebanon Indiana at the Boone County 4-H Fair Grounds. At this time, the following years have registered, 1958, 1967, 1972, 1973, 1995, and ZR1. I believe we may also have a 1963, 1971, 1972, and 1973.

This facility is indoor and air-conditioned. Lunch is planned for serving hog roasted-pulled pork, green beans, macaroni & cheese, etc.

On August 10th, we are planning on returning to Jamie and John Heisler's retreat on Hamilton Lake for a mini meet. As well as another judging school at Larry Gerig's in the Fall, more on these at a later date.

Upcoming events this year begins with the Regionals for Cincinnati OH, April 1-13, Marlborough MA. May 16-18 and, the National Convention in Greenville S.C. July 14-19. I hope to see Indiana chapter members there.

Indiana Chapter NCRS
