On March 29, the Indiana Chapter will present an opportunity to all who are interested to learn the NCRS judging system including NCRS 101 and NCRS 201. Dave Houlihan, Judging Chairman from the Midway USA Chapter, will present NCRS 201. Dave has shared this information with several chapters already.

The purpose is to acquaint participants with the NCRS system and make this information accessible to both members and non-members. Furthermore, the audience will discover that NCRS is more than judging; it provides members with restoration information and help from fellow members. The dynamics of the discussion board as well as the wealth of information in NCRS publications will ultimately benefit all who attend.

Ray Skillman has offered the museum in Greenwood, Indiana to serve as the venue for this event. This event is limited to 70 participants.
